Washington, Nov. 2.—State department officials still were awaiting to day for the German version of the destruction of the British Steamship Marina with a loss of American lives. So far as is known the United States has received no such notification and it is not known whether one has been sent to other neutrals.

Six Americans Lost With Marina

London, Nov. 2.—A telegram from the American embassy from Wall Street American Consul at Queenstown states that the discrepancy in former reports regarding the number of Americans on board the steamer Marina and the names of those who lost their lives have been cleared up. To the list of five Americans reported yesterday as lost, the name of Bule, given in earlier advices as Bry is added. The name of Michelson first reported lost, is now in the list of the American survivors. These changes make the total number of Americans on board fifty-two, of whom six were lost.

Chorus Girl Attire Not Scanlier Than Society's

London, Nov. 2.—Secondly dressed girls of London might safely approach no nearer a stage of complete nudity than some of the women who are to dive with Queen Victoria, says Arnold Bennett, in the Womanette Gazette today, replying to General Smith-Barlow and an anonymous writer who complained about the "immodesty of women in all degrees of immodesty" on the stage.

I have not yet observed in any mode any woman whose degree of immodesty has apparently exceeded that which was invented upon by the late Queen Victoria at her own dinner-table, and which is visibly eighty miles beyond the rooms of London, where he resides.

General Smith-Barlow, complained that the appearance of scantily-dressed women to scenes had an effect upon British audience or less of absence from the trenches.

OWBTER IS A LUCKY GUY, ALL RIGHT ENOUGH

Ed Lester was born under a lucky star. Several months ago he got some sandal oil roses and was assured a son. Since that time he has sold part of the leaves for one. The original oiler was very soft.

WNS HYMN BOOK 118 YEARS OLD

Mr J. T. Bender, 76 East Cleveland, has a book bearing date of 1893. It is a volume containing a "Selection of Hymns and Spiritual Songs." The book has been well handled and is worn at the edges, but is in readable condition. Paper and cover of 100 years ago was in better quality than the acidified cardboards of today. The book was the property of Mr Bender's grandmother, so far seated in Tennessee and now moved to Illinois. Some of the songs have a familiar ring. Mr Bender, who is 79 years old and a member of the Masons, justly prizes the sacred volume highly.

Capt. Gen. A. Barber and Lt. Albert A. D'Avignon returned to their duties at the local post office yesterday Barber as superintendent of mail and D'Avignon as letter carrier, after several months service spent in securing recruits for the Oklahoma state militia now on the Mexican border and which service was ordered discontinued a short time ago by the war department. Capt. Barber was in charge of the Muskogee station and several sub-stations in the eastern part of the state, and Lt. D'Avignon had charge of the station at Lawton.

"While we enjoyed our work in the recruiting service, we are glad to come back to Guthrie and home," says Barber. "While it was the first time in 14 years that I had had occasion to be away for an extended time from my duties at the office, yet after being in various cities and sections of the state it is a pleasure to return to Guthrie. And I want to state further that Guthrie has them all beat."

Postmaster Olenith is pleased to have the boys return to their duties at the office as the increasing business of the office, and especially at this time of year necessitates that the full working force of the office should be on hand to handle the work as the office is at this time enjoying the best business of any season for several years.

SCOTT FERRIS MENTIONED FOR NEXT GOVERNOR

SAID HE WOULD CONFER WITH FRIENDS ON POLITICAL PLANS SOON

Oklahoma City, Nov. 2.—Friends of Congressman Scott Ferris and his wife will be in a discussion of his political plans immediately following his return from the West. Mr. Ferris has been informed that it is a much discussable possibility for the Democratic nomination for governor next year comes. He is not at the moment in a position to decide what his course will be with respect to the governorship. He is endeavoring to give the names of some friends in Oklahoma whom he intends to consult before making his final decision.

J. B. A. Robertson of Tulsa is almost certain to be a candidate and the Democratic nomination for mayor next year. That Ferris would be kept and close to him is understood to be true. That there is a possibility that Ferris might come off second best in such a race is admitted by some of the friends of the Tulsa man. Of course there will be another contest for the nomination but the record of Robertson in previous campaigns such as the gubernatorial campaign with Ferris considered an excellent one, makes him a favorite to win the field. There are still many Democrats among the members of parliament prepared to give him a chance.

Frank Wilson, 26, Postman at 11th and Main, is now carrying his freight in a plain, both small boxes or packages were broken.
